Description

Superb and elegant Louis XIV armchair in walnut. It rests on a baluster base connected by a turned H-shaped crotch. On the front as well as on the back, there is a finely turned cross member for added strength. The fully padded armrests are supported by a baluster turn. The backrest and the armrests are fully padded with the same fabrics as the seat. Very good quality work with a filming of great finesse. Cabinetry and fabrics in perfect condition.
