Description

Pretty colors and the Provençal light that Jean Aubéry knew how to reproduce wonderfully. This oil on canvas measures 33 cm by 41 cm and 40 cm by 48 cm with its original frame, in gilded wood. The work in excellent condition is located on the back in Martigues, the Provençal Venice that all artists of the time loved. It is signed lower left.

Jean Aubéry passed from the Ecole des Beaux Arts in Marseille to the Parisian workshops of Gérôme, Himbert, Duffaud and in 1904 was awarded the Chenavard prize for his "Retour de Pêche". Drawing teacher at the Société de l'Enseignement Moderne, he was nostalgic for his "country" and returned to Marseille. It was then found in all the Local Salons and at the Salon des Artistes Français from 1905 to 1940, where he
