

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Japanese Kutani Porcelain Vase Artist Mark Around 1900 Decor Of Scholars

660 EUR

Signature : a identifier

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Porcelain

Diameter : 6,5

Height : 17,3

Description

Japanese porcelain bottle vase from the Kutani * factory and probably made around 1890-1920 by an artist collaborating with this famous ceramic factory. the revolving decoration of letters and painters of this vase is particularly rare. in a perfect condition.

delivery by registered Colissimo with insurance and delivered against signature.

France EUR 20

Europe EUR 45

Rest of the world EUR 69.

* The porcelain which symbolizes Kanazawa.

Current Kutani porcelain is based on the early 19th century revival of the original Kutani porcelain which was made from the mid 17th century for several decades in the village of Kutani located in the south of Ishikawa

Dealer

A Brocannique

Antique dealer, Asian and world antiquities

Tel : 0297253637

Mobile : 0664293786

19 rue de la motte

Pontivy 56300

Prefecture.

Later, this porcelain rose to fame when it was exhibited at the 1873 World's Fair and was then exported for a time to the West.

Kutani porcelain is characterized by its technique of layering in thick layers of five colors which are red, yellow, green, purple and indigo and its bold representations of the beauties of nature, and has evolved into the one of the decorated ceramic forms "Iroe" typical of Japan.