Description

Interesting bookplate dating from the 19th century, representing a designer sitting and in full creation. This ex-libris is signed lower left but the signature of its author is to be deciphered. It is also decorated with a coat of arms representing a crowned eagle. We unfortunately do not know the identity of the owner of this object so characteristic of great bibliophiles ... Our engraving is framed under glass. The frame is in speckled gold-colored wood and from the twentieth century. A tiny little lack of material is to be noted at the top left of the frame (see detail photo) Dimensions ex-libris only: 4.5 cm x 2.2cm Shipping costs Metropolitan France 10 euros, other destinations contact us
