Description

Orientalist 19th century vase in Montereau earthenware with bronze mounts
Decorated with flowers and palmettes in the colours turquoise, purple, green and orange, the bronze mounts in the style of Barbedienne with elephant heads and an imitation bamboo base, signed to the underside by the painter decorator "C.Dubois" and marked for the manufacture "Montereau / LM & C." for Lebeuf, Milliet et Cie.

It is interesting that this vase can be dated to 1840as we know that this is whenthe merger of Manufactures of Montereau and Creil happened. This vase is still onlymarked Montereau (and not Montereau-Creil which would indicate a date after 1840). It is also known that LouisLebeuf
