Description

Beautiful wall console from the first half of the 19th century, still in Empire style. The walnut furniture is characterized by beautiful carvings with acanthus leaves on the front legs, which show the typical movement like cartouches. The top with which it is provided is in white Carrara marble.

The measures of the console are approximately: 130 cm, depth 58, height 90 cm.

This furniture looks very solid and in a good structural condition.
Polishing costs are to be agreed with the customer. The same goes for transport.
