Beautiful Enamel Miniature On Copper Moses Saved From The Waters

250 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : En l'état

Diameter : 20 cm

Description

Beautiful enameled miniature on copper representing a classic scene from the bible "Moses saved from the waters". On the right, the slaves who removed Moses from the waters of the Nile; on the left, the Pharaoh's daughter and her maids who witness the scene. In the background, we see a bridge that spans the Nile as well as a village. A work of great finesse of execution, enamels of a rare liveliness of colors and a great freshness ... More beautiful in reality than in the photos with a beautiful precision in the realization of the subject. Dimensions: 8, 2 cm x 9 cm enamel 20 cm x 20, 7 cm with the frame Good condition. Some scratches and dirt on the edge visible in the photos. It is presented on a velvet background in a circular frame which puts it well in value with marks of wear and age.
