

Carnation Dish, René Lalique, Art Deco, Circa 1932

750 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Glass

Diameter : 36

Height : 5,5

Description

A beautiful centerpiece tray with a floral and geometric design. Pressed, ground and polished glass. The central part was designed by René Lalique in 1932, it is the model "Oeillets" n ° 422. Sig. "Lalique France", art deco, circa 1932. René Jules Lalique (1860 - 1945) was a Parisian glass artist and jeweler. He became famous during the Art Nouveau period for creating unique, highly imaginative and innovative jewelry. After World War I, he focused on the production of artistic glassware, including perfume bottles, vases and centerpieces. Diameter 36 cm, height 5.5 cm. Condition shown in photos, very good, minor scratches. Free delivery within the EU. ! I send packages by insured courier (DPD or DHL). All items are packaged very carefully.

<https://www.proantic.com/en/871455-carnation-dish-rene-lalique-art-deco-circa-1932.html>

Dealer

Galerie la Belle Epoque

Antiquaire généraliste

Tel : +48 601852083

Bukowska 17

Poznan 60193