Description

Louis XV style clock. 18th century clock.
This old clock is completely gilded. It has a vegetal decoration with a cherub enthroned on the top.

-----
The Louis XV style was initially a characteristic style of seating, which later influenced all arts of his time. This style, which draws part of its inspiration from nature, is characterized by its lightness and a search for privacy and comfort. Succeeding the Regency style, the Louis XV style developed mainly in the second quarter of the 18th century (1723-1750).

-----
Material: Golden metal

Period: 18th century
