Description

Louis XV style cartel, Napoleon III; Tortoise shell and Boulle technique marquetry, composed of gilded brass net on a background of red turtle scales. Quality ornamentation in gilded and chiseled bronze. Chiseled bronze dial, set with 12 white enamelled cartridges, protected by a curved glass. Complete restoration, the marquetry has benefited from a varnish with a buffer, bringing shine and protection. The movement has been completely revised and works perfectly. The long-term work, carried out by a specialized watchmaker
