In the lower third, hand-cast thick opal glass stones (medallions) in emerald green are applied.

The back of these stones is mirrored, so that the glass of the stones appears particularly deep and valuable and it is not visible how they are fixed.

The back of the furniture is provided with a steel plate to counterbalance the weight of the stones in the front area and the doors are fixed to the body with steel straps.

Solid brass key and key guide and conical brass legs.

The interior is painted off-white and equipped
