Description

Large armchair with a flat back called "à la Reine" from the Louis XV period. This beautiful seat in waxed natural beech rests on four arched legs. The two front feet are decorated with a flower decoration and finished at their end with an acanthus leaf. The belt is scalloped and eventful, it is also embellished on the front crossbar with a charming green work. The armrests consoles are curved and recessed with a protruding molding. They support the armrests provided with cuffs. The back is violin-shaped and adorned at its top with a bouquet made up of two flowers and acanthus leaves on the rounded shoulders. This seat is in perfect condition, the structure is very stable, the upholstery is comfortable and the cover fabric is velor.
