Pair Of Spanish Enamelled Porcelain Vases

Description

This elegant pair of vases exemplifies the artistry and craftsmanship of late 19th-century porcelain production, drawing inspiration from the renowned Sèvres manufactory in France. Crafted in Spain, the vases showcase a deep cobalt blue ground color, a hallmark of Sèvres porcelain, richly embellished with gilt decoration.

Each vase is adorned with a charming hand-painted scene depicting figures engaged in everyday activities, adding a touch of whimsy and narrative to the overall design. The gilt decoration, applied with meticulous attention to detail, further enhances the visual appeal and creates a sense of luxury.

The vases are mounted on elegant gilt bronze bases, adding to their grandeur and sophistication. These bases, with their intricate scrollwork and
