Description

Full of charm and authenticity, they will do wonders in your kitchen, including on your table during your country meals, these lovely blown glass bottles, originally fitted with a cork stopper, are cut in the mass. First along the collar to emphasize it, in 9 or 10 (depending on the model) long panels then just below the collar and near the base forming a set of small facets like scales of the most beautiful effect. In blown glass, with a thick flat bottom, their pontil has been ground. In good condition, in their own juice with light and normal signs of use, scratches from use, their unique identity will seduce you. Dimensions: 33.8 cm high for 2 of the tallest bottles 32.2 cm high for the smallest 8.5 cm in diameter Weight of the set: 2, 350 kg Many other objects to discover in my stand of Trade fairs in which I
