

A Miniature On Ivory, Musketeer By Ferdinand Roybet

1 100 EUR

Signature : ferdinand Roybet

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bel état

Material : Ivory

Width : 19.5

Height : 21.5

Description

Ferdinand ROYBET (1840-1920)
French painter, first studying engraving at the École des Beaux-Arts in Lyon, under the influence of the Flemish and Italian grandmasters.

He started at the Salon in 1865 and quickly met with success, one of his works was bought by Princess Mathilde. Throughout his career, he favors historical and classical subjects, portraits of musketeers and courtiers ...

But also famous people of his time such as the Count de Montesquiou, Mme Raymond Poincaré

...

He also travels in Europe and the Maghreb. His career will be crowned with success, he counts

Dealer

Galerie Saint-Martin
Antics, Furniture, Paintings, Fine art
Tel : 01-42-60-83-65

5 et 11 rue des Saints-Pères
Paris 75006

among his clients the American billionaire Vanderbilt for example. His works are present in museums around the world: New York, France, Japan, Russia ...