Description

Beautiful and important sideboard two bodies in cherry, its sides are in chestnut, backs and shelves in oak. It opens with four medallion doors separated by pairs and drawers and rests on arched front feet, straight at the back, its low crossbars are scalloped. Note the very good quality of the ironwork. Period locks and keys. Provincial furniture with a warm presence that the photos of the Center-West of France hardly illustrate, between Pays de Loire and Vendée. Regency influence, Louis XV period.
