

Romantic Dagger European Work, Mid XIXth Century

695 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Description

14.5cm scabbard with weapon trophies, Native American head and ending with a snake's head. Magnificent gilded bronze dagger with the handle depicting a standing man, very good workmanship. The 24.5cm straight steel blade with two grooves is double-edged, it keeps its original length and ends in a point. Very good state of conservation.
