French School. He received the Arts-Sciences-Lettres medal and is a member of the International Association of Plastic Arts (affiliated to UNESCO). In addition, he produced a series of medals and sculptures for the Monnaie de Paris, and various creations such as the bust of Dr Coll Colomé, a monument erected in Benicarlo (Spain) and edition covers including the novel by Jean-Marc Roberts The Friend of Vincent. Jorge Borrás' work is a tribute to women. Her favorite themes are ballerinas and bathers as well as women in attitudes of everyday life. Wild animals, some in danger of extinction, are also very present in the work of Jorge Borrás, especially in recent years where he takes great pleasure in capturing the wild moment of his attitudes. Passionate about drawing, he began to paint at the age of ten and had his first exhibition at the age of twenty. At the Barcelona School of Fine Arts he discovered sculpture with Luisa Granero and studied painting and sculpture. Student in the drawing section, of the great master of Spanish painting and portrait painter Francisco Ribera Gomez with whom he befriends. An important work "Cristo resucitado" (bronze) can be seen in the Church of San Bartolomé in Benicarló (Spain). By decree of the President of the French Republic of November 30, 2019 published in the Official Journal of December 3, 2019, he is appointed Chevalier in the National Order of Merit.
