Description

A pair of rare Chinese genre scenes with woodcarvers and blacksmiths were executed by the most famous British artist, who spent his life in China. George Chinnery (Chinese: ? ??), born 1774 in London - died in Macau in 1852) was an English painter who spent most of his life in Asia, particularly in India and southern China. For comparison with another identical painting by Chinnery, estimated to be sold by Bonhams, London on 7.12.2011, lot.No. 21, see additional photo.
