Description

The +: in pairs, enamelled. Usage: decorative. Pair of large terracotta Vallauris vases from the 1950s. Elongated elliptical in shape with curved contours at 2 inflection points, the vase consists of a bulb-shaped body, a flared straight neck and a flat bottom. The beige background color and we will note dark tones reported in swirls of smoke to catch the light. The shoulders and the collar are adorned with very beautiful bright colors enameled in shades of red ranging from a beautiful bright red to crimson with coral undertones. It is a very beautiful work of creation with a beautiful mastery of shapes and materials. Very good condition (no cracks or missing). Signed under the bottom "Vallauris".
