Description

Bronze with brown patina depicting a young boy playing with a spinning top, dating from the end of the 19th century. The child holds the toy in his right hand, a laughing smile on his face. Leaning slightly forward, but firmly planted on his legs, he seems facetious and full of joy. In his left hand, we can see the string used as a launcher for the game. Touching subject, this Bronze will delight you with its universal theme charged with joy, the simple happiness of a child absorbed in his games.
