

18th Century Louis XV Mantel Clock

Description

This striking mantel clock is a testament to the exquisite craftsmanship and refined aesthetic of the Empire period in 19th-century France. The clock showcases a harmonious blend of form and function, typical of the style, with a strong emphasis on neoclassical elements.

The clock is presented in a classic architectural form, with a central columnar structure supporting the circular white enamel dial. The columns are adorned with gilded bronze capitals and bases, adding a touch of opulence. Above the dial, a sculptural group depicting a winged figure adds a dramatic and decorative element.

The clock rests on a rectangular base crafted from a combination of marble types, creating a visually interesting contrast. The base is further embellished with gilded bronze mounts, featuring

5 500 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état et fonctionnement stable.

Material : Bronze

Width : 37 cm

Height : 56 cm

Depth : 14 cm

Dealer

Royal Antique

Proudly delivering art and elegance.

Tel : +48 722090633

Mobile : +48 722090633 (WhatsApp)

Warszawa 02-681

intricate motifs of acanthus leaves and floral swags.

The overall effect is one of grandeur and sophistication, reminiscent of the imperial palaces of Europe. This clock would make a stunning addition to any grand residence, serving as a centerpiece for conversation and admiration.

Key Selling Points:

Empire Style: The clock exemplifies the elegance and grandeur of the Empire style, a period celebrated for its neoclassical influences and refined aesthetic.

Material Contrast: The combination of marble types and gilded bronze creates a visually striking and luxurious effect.

Intricate Craftsmanship: The level of detail in the bronzework and the selection of the marble adds to the table's value and prestige.

Historical Significance: The clock's design evokes the grandeur and opulence of the 19th century, making it a piece of historical significance.

Investment Potential: As a unique and high-quality piece, this clock has the potential to appreciate in value over time.