Description

Elegant Neapolitan mirror from the second half of the 18th century entirely sculpted, sculpted and gilded with gold leaf. The mirror looks like a triumph of carved wood with a movement that develops from the bottom up where it is possible to appreciate all its finesse. Cymatium is a succession of volutes, rockeries, scallops and plant racemes. Two feet with rocailles pattern contribute to the elegance and refinement of this splendid object. The mirror is mercury-salt glass and is contemporary with the wooden frame.
