Description

Painter from Valais in Switzerland born in 1925 died in 1993. Lover of raw materials, products of the earth, Charles Monnier integrates their essences into his creations. Thus are born paintings imbued with an accent of frankness, honesty, devoid of artifice. Pure, spontaneous figures with simple contours impose. Charles Monnier painted from an early age. Numerous exhibitions in the main cities of Switzerland and abroad have contributed to the artist's fame.
