François GARNIER

Father of the famous cabinetmaker Pierre

Garnier, François Garnier worked in rue du

Faubourg-Saint Antoine where he was a sworn member of the corporation of carpenters-cabinetmakers from 1742 to 1744.

The use of the stamp not being compulsory

during the beginning of his career, few works

have been attributed to him with certainty.

However, the signed furniture that we find shows

great meticulousness and real talent.

He died in Paris in 1774 rue des Moineaux.
