Description

ART Deco chandelier in silver metal, with 4 arms of light adorned with molded glass tulips with stylized flower motifs. The silver-plated frame is composed of a base with a stylized Art Deco geometric pattern from which four long rods start clinging to a frosted glass dome with a typical Art Deco geometric pattern and stylized flowers. The carving work on the grind is particularly fine. The glassware is certainly the fruit of the collaboration with the glassware Muller Frères Lunéville with whom Maynadier used to collaborate.
