Description

Louis XV style bookcase, with a projecting central section. It opens with three doors, with frames in Violet Wood Veneer. They are latticework of Brass, and are locked since provided with Locks in working order. The Cabinet is supplied with its three keys. The two side doors, narrower than the middle one, are also distinguished by the presence of Windows in the upper parts. In addition, their lower parts are solid and composed of recessed panels, in Blonde Mahogany Veneer arranged in Herringbone. Their centers are embellished with two Important Mascarons with the faces of Men. Indisputable advantage, the interior of this piece of furniture is partitioned. As it is, it is equipped with twelve shelves placed on racks and therefore perfectly modular. These three storage spaces that can be converted as desired will adapt to your needs and desires. This Library is crowned with a curved Cornice, underlined by a chiseled Baguette. It is also adorned in the middle with a large Bronze Rocaille and, in its four front corners, with more modest Chutes. The amounts of frontage are also Generously ornamented, since they raise successively Bronzes Foliage, Espagnolettes, and Sabots. The lower crosspiece is fretted, and embellished in the center with a last openwork Bronze. The sides of this piece of furniture take up the composition described above: Mahogany Bond, veneered with Butterfly Wings, lined with a darker wood, the Bois de Violette. The set rests on four small feet, slightly flared outwards for those at the front, straight for those at the back. It should be noted that, in addition to offering reasonable dimensions, this piece of furniture is completely removable. We will appreciate on this Bookcase the successful association of a Delicate design and a Rich Ornamentation. We will also remember its Brass Grilles, which bring a note of Modernity to this 150-year-old property.
