Description

Set of seven table forks and seven table spoons in silver metal, Albi model.
20th century French work from the famous Christofle house.
The fourteen pieces are new still in sealed blister.
The blisters have never been opened, however there is some oxidation on the cutlery, due to a few points of air inlets in the blisters.
This oxidation remains relatively light and will come off easily with a chamoisine or a product for silverware.
The cutlery remains in very good condition, as it has never been used, and therefore has no scratches or shocks.
