Description

Console in gilded wood with 4 legs in the Louis XV style and from the Napoleon III period. It is topped with a double-grooved red levanto marble. Very good quality with perfect curve referrals. The crosspieces are solid and decorated with braces to accommodate the decorations of acanthus leaves. The bottom of the central crosspiece is a stylized acanthus leaf shell. The decoration of the falls of the feet is in the same spirit. The 4 curved legs are connected by a spacer and a very rich shell decor. Ideal for an entrance or a living room. Other consoles are visible on my site. Napoleon III period. In a perfect state.
