Description

Mirror fitted with two doors in the spirit of the cupboard doors, as well as a shelf at the bottom.
The doors are in walnut, and are glazed in the upper part.
The lower part in solid wood is embellished with a mirror inside and therefore visible when opening the doors.
They are decorated with fittings in the center, and flowers carved at the top of the doors.
The frame, as well as the tablet are in chestnut.
There are some traces of water on the tablet.
The mirror, which is mercury, has some marks and pitting (see photos).
It attaches to the wall with two screws at the top of the frame. Presence of screws.
Very decorative, to leave in its own juice or to customize.
