Description

Small secretary called "lady's" from the late 19th century in light wood marquetry on a blackened wood background. It opens on the front with four drawers in the lower part, a leaf revealing a theater comprising four small drawers and a large drawer, and another drawer in the upper part under the white marble. The uprights are embellished with twisted half-columns, model with ears. The set is in good condition, note a partially cleaned ink stain inside the theater. The manufacturer's signature appears on the back of the piece of furniture.
