Description

Pair of so-called Cornet Vases composed of a conical part in Crystal with a cutout on the top and grooved on the vertical plane. Each vase rests on a bronze-coloured patinated brass base. This frame decorated with flowers and ivy leaves surrounds the base of the crystal in a harmonious movement. Thick intertwined stems form a stable tripod for these curvaceous vases inspired by nature. These two Belle Époque vases are the perfect alliance between the purity of crystal and the poetry of spring decorations.

Period: 1900
