

Japanese Ceramic Satsuma Ware Teapot Decor To Children Boys Playing

220 EUR

Signature : Satsuma

Period : 19th century

Condition : Couvercle cassé

Material : Earthenware

Length : 13,3

Height : 11,5

Description

Japanese teapot from the 1880s-1900s in Satsuma earthenware.

Interesting rotating decoration in enamel and gilding of playing children, on one side on horses and on the other with bows and arrows.

The lid is broken, reattached and there is a lack, however the breakage is hardly visible from the outside.

the handle is original.

Delivery in an armored package by registered colissimo with insurance and delivered against signature for;

France EUR20

Europe EUR40

Rest of the world EUR60

Dealer

A Brocannique

Antique dealer, Asian and world antiquities

Tel : 0297253637

Mobile : 0664293786

19 rue de la motte

Pontivy 56300