Description

Elegant Showcase of Parisian manufacture in the Louis XVI Style in Solid Mahogany, decorated with a white Carrara marble top veined with gray with a jump shape and a groove. This piece of furniture opens with 2 doors, 3/4 glazed in the upper part, with a slightly molded frame, which are made up of a Mahogany Burl panel in the lower part. Note that these openings close with an Upper and Lower Lock, thus ensuring excellent support. The interior uncovers on three glass shelves, resting on brass cleats on the sides and back. The facade is embellished by the presence of the 2 half-column legs with fixed fluting: these, ending in a taper, also fluted, bring lightness to the whole. The sides echo the work of the facade: we find the 3/4 glazed part as well as the mahogany Burl panel, giving balance and
