Description

Chiffonniere in Rosewood, Inlaid with Ebony and light wood on all sides. It opens on the front with three small drawers, each with a cut-out brass keyhole and its respective key. The Body of this Small Tambour Table, by definition high on legs and with an Oval silhouette, offers a top of the same shape. The latter, bordered by an openwork brass gallery, features in its center a pretty Decor of a bouquet of flowers surrounded by Scrolls and other inlays. This Medallion is framed by a frieze alternating Ebony and light wood. The Marqueteries are omnipresent on this piece of furniture, also, in the same spirit, we will find them on its rounded sides, on its rear part, above its feet or on the fronts of its drawers. The floral theme is recurring, except on the Rognon spacer tray where a set of kitchen accessories is
