Description

Bronze proof with Brown Patina, signed by Georges Halbout du Tanney (1895-1986), French Figurative Sculptor. It also bears on its base the Stamp of "Meroni Radice Cire Perdue Paris", a craft company born in 1921 from the association of the Art Founder Meroni and the Modeler Radice. This Work represents a Barefoot Dancer whose Body tilts in a Delicate Movement and whose Arms fold in the direction of her Face. Dressed in a fluid dress, she expresses a personal Emotion connected to the Present Moment by her Aerial gestures. Immortalized by the Artist, this Captivating young woman catches the eye with her Harmonious, Sensitive and Free Body Expression.
