Description

Surprising painting representing the port of Asnières, a town near Paris.

The painting is signed Eugène Louis GILLOT and Frédéric Houbron.

It was therefore painted with two hands. Two bridges on each side of the work frame the painting.

THE fresh, colorful and lively touch and the reflections on the water are reminiscent of the Impressionists.

This charming port image is surrounded by a decorative frieze, in the shape of ivy on a mauve background.

Eugène Louis Gillot is an official naval painter.
