Description

Gilt and chiseled bronze clock in the Transition style with rich rocaille ornaments, garlands of roses, knotted ribbons, Sèvres porcelain plate. The enamel dial in perfect condition signed Lépine Place des Victoires 2 (1830) protected by a curved glass is inserted in a fluted column surmounted by a covered pot adorned with roses. The removable lid is finished with a bouquet of roses handle. Two functional incense burners resting on a tripod base complete this trim.
