Description

Oil mounted on cardboard, representing a ceiling project with a mascarón in its center surrounded by 4 heads of a winged helmeted man, perhaps Hermès, the latter framed by large blue acanthus leaves standing out against a gold background, the whole in a beautiful patina. Quality work from the 19th century, this "pretty" document is presented in its "juice" with some small wear, possibility of restoring it in our workshop, the work is in a new baguette.
