Description

Carved wooden wall statue representing a Saint. This religious subject, the left hand resting on the heart, inspires piety. Her soft gaze and her melancholic features seem to stare at us through time. Her headdress and her drapery, skilfully sculpted, give the impression of movement to the whole. Note the presence of a ring on the rear part, facilitating its attachment. Bicentenary, this work will undoubtedly seduce lovers of sacred art and history.

Period: 19th century

Very good condition. Restoration of the right arm and hand in our workshop.
