Description

Pair of beautifully crafted cast iron and wrought iron railings dating from the first half of the 19th century in the Directoire style, in perfect condition following the restoration by our locksmith. Its turned balusters support braces embellished with cabochons in their center. These guardrails are provided with lateral struts. They bordered a terrace on either side of a staircase. Their height is 54 cm plus 3 to 7 cm of sealing. Their length is 240 cm plus 3 cm of side seals. You can visit our website:
