Description

Authentic ice cream cart around 1900. Originally gas lighting. Recently re-electrified with two pretty torch-shaped glassware. At the time, you could put blocks of ice in the box below to keep the ice cream at temperature. This crate is made of painted wood with a different seaside decor on each panel. Original labels of the different flavors: raspberry, vanilla, pistachio, chocolate. Pretty striped canvas "Deauville style". Two side boxes were used to store the ice cream cones. Very nice decorative item! Total length with handle: 1.70 m Box length: 1.35 m Box depth: 70 cm Box height: 70 cm Total height (at the tip of the canvas): 2.10 m Hub width : 89 cm Possibility of transport and delivery to certain destinations (possible dismantling of the upper part).
