

Set Of Armchairs And Chippendale Table In Solid Beech - 1950

2 500 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Excellent état

Description

Elegant set consisting of two armchairs and a Chippendale style coffee table. We find two small armchairs in the shepherdess spirit equipped with armrests benefiting from caning and a belt with movement resting on arched Chippendale legs. The backrest is embellished with a green fabric decorated with bouquets of flowers and studded around its perimeter. At the back, three movement bars are present. Comfortable, the seat consists of a large down cushion covered with its fabric in original condition. A tea table completes the set. It has a structured caning composition with a molded beech element in its center. A circular glass fits on top. A magnificent movement belt surrounds it. This rests on arched and sculpted feet. This unique living room set shaped in the pure Chippendale style benefits
