Description

This extraordinary center table is a testament to the opulence and artistry of the 19th century. It features a striking combination of materials and design elements, showcasing a level of craftsmanship rarely seen today.

The circular table top is composed of a magnificent slab of malachite, its deep green color and natural veining creating a mesmerizing focal point. This is further enhanced by the surrounding gilded bronze mounts, intricately cast with motifs of acanthus leaves and floral swags.

The base of the table is equally impressive, supported by four powerful sphinx figures. These mythical creatures, with their lion bodies and human heads, exude an aura of power and mystery. Each sphinx is meticulously detailed,
