Description

Maurice Le Scouëzec, Watercolor, Brousse Afrique 1928" Watercolor from 1928 No. 486 of the Montparnasse catalog raisonné, whose artistic effervescence of the 1920s he rubbed shoulders with during his travels in Africa, Maurice Le Scouëzec creates a unique and uncompromising work. Hidden in the general public in a Breton attic for many decades, his works today reveal an extraordinary and rebellious painter
