

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Albert Pépin, Cowherds In Central Asia

750 EUR

Signature : Albert PÉPIN (1849-1917)

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oil painting

Width : 33 cm

Height : 22 cm

Description

Albert PÉPIN (1849-1917)

Cowherds in Central Asia

Oil on canvas (relined)

Signed lower right A. Pépin

22 x 33 cm

Gilt wood frame

Note :

Albert Pépin was a painter and illustrator. He was the childhood friend of Pierre Gabriel Edouard BONVALOT (Spain, 1853 - Paris, 1933), one of the greatest French explorers of the 19th century, known for his travels in Central Asia and Tibet as well as for the works that he wrote about his travels. Between 1880 and 1890, he explored many regions of Central Asia. During his third

Dealer

Cerca Trova

Paintings and works on paper

Tel : + 33 6 71 46 46 57

Mobile : + 33 6 71 46 46 57

33, rue Chaptal

Paris 75009

trip in 1886, he left with Guillaume Capus, botanist and ethnologist, and Albert Pépin, draftsman, the author of our painting. They will go as far as Afghanistan. It is therefore an authentic testimony to the life of populations and landscapes very rarely painted at that time.

Sources :

http://fr.wikipedia.org/wiki/Gabriel\_Bonvalot

Bibliography :

Svetlana Gorshenina, Explorers in Central Asia, Travelers and Adventurers from Marco Polo to Ella Maillart, Olizane editions, 2003

Svetlana Gorshenina, Aymon Baud and Philippe Forêt, La haute Asia as they saw it, explorers and scientists from 1820 to 1940, Olizane editions, 2003

Gabriel BONVALOT, From the Caucasus to the Indies through the Pamir, Book decorated with 250 drawings by Albert Pépin with a map of the itinerary of the trip , Paris, E. Plon, Nourrit et Cie, 1889