PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Norman Pitcher Decanter In Blown Glass In Bright Blue Color Normandy Glassware Nineteenth Frenc

180 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Glass

Width : 11,8 cm (bec et anse inclus)

Height : 19,6 cm

Description

Very pretty blue for this Norman decanter jug from the 19th century.Glasswork from Normandy - Glassware from Bresle Valley.Elegant Norman pitcher jug, slender in shape with a high spout, in bright blue blown glass,blown workglass in ringed movements throughout the body, full handle added hot to the pliers, beautiful transparency but above all beautiful intensity of the blue, pinched spout , pontil below.Good condition, some very small bubbles and tiny impurities in transparency.Dimensions: 19.6 cm high x 11.8 cm wide (spout and handle included)Weight: 350 g

Dealer

Les Couloirs du Temps - Samuel Collin

Folk Art and Popular Traditions, Regionalism, Curiosity

Tel : 06 81 53 21 70

Mobile : 06 70 45 88 65

Impasse des Ventes

Mézières-en-Drouais 28500