Description

NAPOLEON III hand-height cabinet in blackened wood and cedar wood for the light parts. Its top is in white marble and the door is decorated with brass marquetry with floral vase motifs, draperies and foliage. It is richly ornamented with bronzes: keyholes, palmettes, falls, nets and chiseled moldings with "Greek" cutouts. Its interior, in mahogany, is furnished with 2 shelves with a blackened field and it rests on 4 "spinning top" feet.

NAPOLEON III period (circa 1860)

Perfect condition after restoration, stripping, removal for cleaning of the bronzes and refitting, satin varnish finish.
