Description

Pretty centerpiece in an oval shape in silver plated metal. It is composed around its perimeter of multiple openwork elements comprising pilasters and beribboned crowns. At each end, a very airy handle in the shape of scrolls and leaves allows the object to be held in the hand. This planter rests on four small claw feet, each surmounted by a grimacing lion's head. The interior, removable at will, is in vermeil blue glass. This centerpiece will highlight the furniture on which you choose to place it, its finesse of execution and its deep color will undoubtedly seduce you.
