Description

Two drawers dresser with flap top,
made in France in the first half of the 1800s.
The cabinet, in oak wood,
has a five-pointed star inlaid with light wood.
The gathered feet and low-end feature
the typical scrolls of French Provence.
Going up we find two large drawers with handles
one of which with lock and key.
Opening the flap top inside we find
three secret compartments and 5 small drawers.
Fully restored and polished with shellac.
The measure with the top lowered is 73 cm in height
and a total of 89 cm deep
